

PRESS RELEASE

Fort Eustis (Virginia)

---

The Spanish Army legacy echos in US Army TRADOC.

---

TRADOC Commanding General received a copy of the book “George Washington and Spain. The Spanish Army Legacy in the USA” from the Spanish Liaison Officer.

27ENE2021.- On January the 27th, TRADOC Commanding General, Paul E. Funk II received a copy of the book “George Washington and Spain. The Spanish Army Legacy in the USA”.

The book is a The Legacy association’s project sponsored by the Spanish Ministry of Defense. The Legacy is dedicated to bringing attention to the significance of Spain’s historical and cultural contributions to the United States, in order to encourage and promote the ties between the two countries.

MADOC’s Liaison Officer at TRADOC goal is to facilitate information exchange between both armies in order to promote subjects of mutual interest. Offering this book to General Funk II definitely contributes to his role.

TRADOC is responsible for most of education and training activities in the US Army. It has more than 54.000 soldiers and civilians working in its many academies, schools and centers and prepares more than 556.000 soldiers per year. The Army Center of Military History is also under TRADOC command. Among this center’s responsibility is to educate the force and the American people through historical perspective about the Army’s contributions to our nation.

