

Agreement with The Legacy to spread the common history with the United States of America.

The University of Seville and the Association "The Legacy" have signed a collaboration agreement for the development of activities to help spread the history of the United States, and their contributions to the history of culture and thought in the common history of Spain and the United States of America.

The Rector of the University of Seville, Mr. Miguel Angel Castro, and the President of the Association The Legacy, Ms. Eva M. García, have expressed their satisfaction for the launch of this common project, which will be carried out in performing cultural activities and in the coordination of educational and informative initiatives.

The Legacy Association is devoted to highlight the importance of the historical and cultural contribution of Spain in the United States of America, with the aim of facilitating and promoting the bonds of union between both countries. This is based on the valuable relationship forged from a long time before the Declaration of Independence of the American people.

Among its statutory objectives are to cooperate in the improvement of knowledge, dissemination and teaching of common history based on the historical legacy of Spain in the United States. The Legacy propose actions for the development of relationships generating and promoting new ideas. Also promote the knowledge, through teaching and research, of the contributions made in the period between the sixteenth and nineteenth centuries.
